FINDINGS RELATED TO MOTION FOR AUTHORITY TO COMPROMISE; FOR DISMISSAL OF INDIVIDUAL CASES; CLAIMS ALLOWANCE
(ST. PAUL)

At Fresno, in the Eastern District of California.

The Motion for Authority to Compromise; for Dismissal of Individual Cases: Claims Allowance (St. Paul) filed by all three Debtors was duly heard on October 26, 2005 at 1:30 p.m. pursuant to an order shortening time on notice to all creditors of all three estates. An objection was made by Fireman's Fund which was withdrawn at the hearing.

Prior to the hearing the Court considered the Motion, Brief and Declarations of Patrick Mauldin and Alan Dorfmeier in support of the Motion, the Objection filed by Fireman's Fund, the Response by the moving parties, and the arguments of counsel at the hearing. Appearances were entered by Todd Bailey on behalf of St. Paul Fire and Marine Insurance Company, Michael Lum and James Diwik on behalf of Fireman's Fund Insurance Company, Scott Belden for Mauldin-Dorfmeier Construction, Inc., Riley Walter for Patrick Mauldin and Alan Dorfmeier, and Thomas Armstrong on behalf of the MDC Creditor's Committee.

The Court having reviewed the matter, and good cause appearing, now therefore,

THE COURT HEREBY FINDS AND SET FORTH ON THE RECORD AS FOLLOWS:

1. Due and proper notice of the relief requested was given to the required creditors and parties in interest.
2. Fireman's Fund has withdrawn its Objection and there were no other objections to the relief sought.
3. Notice of the intention to dismiss the individual Chapter 11 cases was adequate and dismissal of said individual Chapter 11 cases is for and in the best interests of creditors of those estates.
